STUDENT RELEASE FROM GROUP TRAVEL

Students are always encouraged to travel home with their group. In the event circumstances prevent group travel, parents are asked to complete this form and give it to the head director/coach or designated director/coach no later than the day prior to the trip. Please remember WFISD can only release students to parents and legal guardians. Parents/guardians can only provide transportation to their children. These rules are in place to protect our students.

Before leaving the event, the parent and student must also sign out face to face with the head director/coach or designated director/coach before leaving.
